The AS President, Executive Vice President, Vice President of Business and Finance, and the Vice President of Facilities and Services are sometimes referred to herein collectively as the “Executives.”

(a) The Student Directors shall possess at the time they file for and/or hold office the following minimum qualifications: (1) If enrolled as undergraduate students, they must be enrolled in and earn at least nine units of credit per semester while running for and/or holding office. They must also maintain a post-baccalaureate minimum cumulative campus GPA of 3.0; (3) each shall have completed a minimum of 45 college class units but no more than 132 college class units at the time of filing, 12 of which shall have been earned at CSUC; (4) each shall have been enrolled in and shall have completed at least one semester at CSUC immediately preceding that in which he or she files for and/or assumes office and be enrolled as a student at CSUC for the semester immediately following such completed semester at the time he or she files for and/or assumes office of the corporation; and, (5) neither he nor she shall be on academic or disciplinary probation at any time during any semester in which he or she runs for or holds office. In addition, the AS Vice President of Business and Finance shall possess such additional qualifications, if any, that may be determined from time to time by the Board. These may include, but not be limited to, the successful completion of undergraduate or graduate college classes in the subject areas of business, accounting, finance, economics, and law. The additional elected officers of the corporation (the “Commissioners”) who serve on the Government Affairs Committee also shall possess all of the same qualifications of the Student Directors as listed above, including the requirement that they shall have completed and earned 12 college class units at

The foregoing shall in no way be construed to lessen or amend the duties of an Elected Officer as set forth herein, under rules, regulations or policies duly adopted by the Board or by a standing committee, under any contract between the corporation and an Elected Officer, or otherwise under law. The full and faithful performance of such duties by each Elected Officer shall be a continuing qualification of the office and should an Elected Officer fail or cease to perform such duties, he or she may be removed as an Elected Officer and his or her office declared vacant by the board by a two-thirds vote of the directors present, a quorum being present.
Section 4. Election and Term of Office. The Elected Officers shall be elected annually from the candidates running for such offices by the members of the corporation voting at a general election to be conducted by online ballots or, upon a member's request, by written ballot in the Spring of each year pursuant to procedures established by the Board. For a period of time not to exceed 15 days preceding their assumption of office, newly elected Elected Officers shall be obligated to attend all meetings which by reason of their office they would be obliged to attend were they office holders and to consult and work with their predecessors in office. For purposes of these bylaws, unless otherwise expressly stated to be calendar days, the word “days” shall mean instructional days, or days on which classes are being taught at CSUC. During such period, such newly elected Elected Officers shall be entitled to such compensation, if any, as the Board may determine from time to time. The term of office of the Elected Officers shall be approximately one year, commencing upon their assumption of office and continuing until their successors assume office following the general election in the Spring of the succeeding year.

Section 5. Term of Office of Designated Directors. The term of office of the Designated Directors who hold office by virtue of their being the CSUC Vice President for Business and Finance and CSUC Vice President Student Affairs shall be continuous and shall not be affected by a change or changes in the person or persons holding such position or positions. The Designated Director appointed from the staff or the tenured faculty of CSUC shall be appointed and selected in April of even-numbered years. He or she shall serve for two years, until his or her successor has been appointed and assumed office. There shall be no limit on the number of consecutive terms of office the appointed Designated Director may hold.

Section 6. Vacancies.

a. Events Causing Vacancy. A vacancy or vacancies in the Board of Directors shall be deemed to exist on the occurrence of the following:

(1) The death, resignation or removal of any director;

(2) The declaration by resolution of the Board of Directors of a vacancy of the office of a director who has been declared of unsound mind by an order of court or convicted of a felony or has been found by final order of judgment of any court to have breached a duty under sections 5230 et seq. of the California Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law; or,
(3) An increase in the authorized number of directors.

b. Resignations. Except as provided in this paragraph, any director may resign, which resignation shall be effective on giving written notice to the AS President unless the notice specifies a later time for the resignation to become effective. No director may resign if by reason of such resignation, the corporation would be left without a duly elected director or directors in charge of its affairs.

c. No Vacancy or Reduction of Number of Directors. No reduction of the authorized number of directors shall have the effect of removing any director before the director's term of office expires.

d. Filling Vacancies. A vacancy in the office of the AS President shall be filled by the AS Executive Vice President. A vacancy in the office of any other Elected Officer shall be filled by approval of the Board. Any person appointed to fill a vacancy shall possess the qualifications of the office to which he or she is to be appointed.

A vacancy in the directorship held by the CSUC Vice President for Business and Finance or by the CSUC Vice President for Student Affairs shall be filled by the person appointed by the CSUC President to replace such person and who holds such position, even if in an interim capacity. A vacancy in the office of the appointed Designated Director shall be filled by appointment by the joint decision of the Executives, on the one hand, and the CSUC President, on the other.

Section 7. Meetings. Meetings of the Board may be held at any place within the State of California that has been designated from time to time by the Board. In the absence of such designation, regular meetings shall be held at the principal office of the corporation. Special meetings of the Board shall be held at the place designated in the notice of the meeting or, if not stated in the notice, or if there is no notice, at the principal office of the corporation.

Notwithstanding the above provisions of this Section 7, a regular or special meeting of the Board may be held at any place consented to in writing by all the Board members, either before or after the meeting. If consents are given, they shall be filed with the minutes of the meeting.

Meetings and notices thereof shall be called, conducted and given in accordance with California Corporations Code section 5211. A majority of the directors authorized in these Bylaws shall constitute a quorum. Action of the Board other than to override a decision or action of a standing committee or to amend these Bylaws shall require a simple majority vote of the directors voting, a quorum being present. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a meeting of the Board may be called by any one director if the purpose of such meeting is to review an Executive Order issued by the AS President, provided the call of such meeting complies with any requirements therefor that may be established from time to time by the Board.

Section 8. Action Without Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board may be taken without a meeting, if all members of the Board consent in writing to that action. Such action by written consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of the Board. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of proceedings of the Board.

Section 9. Compensation of Elected Officers. Elected Officers shall be entitled to compensation, if any, as may from time to time be determined by the Board as it in its discretion deems appropriate, a vote of two-thirds plus one of the directors present, a quorum being present, being required. In determining such amounts, the Board shall consider, among other things, the particular office, the duties thereof, the time expended therefor, the ability of the Elected Officer to otherwise be employed, and the annual financial needs of a CSUC student living off campus as determined by the CSUC Financial Aid Office. Compensation for an Elected Officer who misses without good cause the Fall or Spring orientation program conducted by the corporation for its elected officers or a meeting or meetings of the Board, committee or sub-committee on which he or she serves or who chronically fails or neglects to perform the duties of his or her office, including, without limitation, the duty of maintaining the requisite weekly office hours attendant to such office, may be withheld or reduced by the Board upon the affirmative vote of a two-thirds vote of the directors present, a quorum being present.

(3) The secretary shall be an ex-officio member to all sub-units of the Board, assist the president and the chair in all functions of that office, be responsible for the coordination of an orientation for incoming Elected Officers, and assume all duties, power and responsibilities of the president and chair in his or her absence.

c. Chief Financial Officer. The chief financial officer shall attend to the following:

(1) The chief financial officer shall keep and maintain, or cause to be kept and maintained, adequate and correct books and records of accounts of the properties and business transactions of the corporation, including accounts of its assets, liabilities, receipts, disbursements, gains, losses, capital, retained earnings, and other matters customarily included in financial statements. The books of account shall be open to inspection by any director at all reasonable times.

(2) The chief financial officer shall deposit or cause to be deposited all money and other valuables in the name and to the credit of the corporation with such depositories as may be designated by the Board; shall disburse the funds of the corporation as may be ordered by the Board; shall render to the president and directors, whenever they request it, an account of all of his or her transactions as chief financial officer and of the financial condition of the corporation; and shall have other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board or the Bylaws.

(3) If required by the Board, the chief financial officer shall provide at the expense of the corporation a bond in the amount and with the surety or sureties specified by the Board for faithful performance of the duties of his or her office and for restoration to the corporation of all its books, papers, vouchers, money, and other property of every kind in his or her possession or under his or her control on his or her death, resignation, retirement, or removal from office.

(4) The chief financial officer shall be the treasurer for the corporation, submit or cause to be submitted monthly financial reports for the corporation prepared in a professional manner, to the Board, and shall assume all duties, powers and responsibilities of the president and chair in the absence of the president and chair and of the secretary.
d. Executives. The Executives shall meet and confer with the AS Executive Director as often as necessary on matters involving the ordinary business and affairs of the corporation and the implementation of Board policies and consult with the AS Executive Director to plan and prepare the agenda for all Board meetings.

ARTICLE XI - INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS, OFFICERS, EMPLOYEES AND OTHER AGENTS

To the fullest extent permitted by law, this corporation shall indemnify its directors, officers, employees and other persons described in section 5238(a) of the California Corporation Code, including persons formerly occupying any such positions, against all expenses, judgments, fines, settlements and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred by them in connection with any “proceeding,” as that term is used in that section, and including an action by or in the right of the corporation, by reason of the fact that the person is or was a person described in that section. “Expenses,” as used in this Bylaw, shall have the same meaning as in section 5238(a) of the California Corporations Code.

On written request of the board by any person seeking indemnification under section 5238(b) or (c) of the California Corporations Code, the Board shall promptly determine under section 5238(e) of the California Corporations Code whether the applicable standard of conduct set forth in section 5238(b) or (c) has been met and, if so, the Board shall authorize indemnification. If the Board cannot authorize indemnification because the number of directors who are parties to the proceeding with respect to which indemnification is sought prevents the formation of a quorum of directors who are not parties to that proceeding, the Board shall promptly call a meeting of members. At that meeting the members shall determine under section 5238(b) or (c) has been met and, if so, the members present at the meeting in person or by proxy shall authorize indemnification.

To the fullest extent permitted by law and except as otherwise determined by the Board in a specific instance, expenses incurred by a person seeking indemnification under these Bylaws in defending any proceeding covered hereby shall be advanced by the corporation before final disposition of the proceeding, on receipt by the corporation of an undertaking by or on behalf of that person that the advance will be repaid unless it is ultimately determined that the person is entitled to be indemnified by the corporation for those expenses.
The corporation shall have the right to purchase and maintain insurance to the full extent permitted by law on behalf of its officers, directors, employees, and other agents, against any liability asserted against or incurred by any officer, director, employee or agent in such capacity or arising out of the officers, directors, employees or agent status as such.

Nothing contained in these Bylaws shall affect any right to indemnification to which persons other than directors and officers of this corporation may be entitled by contract or otherwise.

ARTICLE XII - RECORDS AND REPORTS

Section 1. Maintenance of Corporate Records. The corporation shall keep:

a. Adequate and correct books and records of account;

b. Minutes in written form of the proceedings of its members, Board, and committees of the Board; and

c. A record of its members, giving their names and addresses and the class of membership held by each.

All such reports shall be kept at the corporation’s principal executive office.

Section 2. Maintenance and Inspection of Articles and Bylaws. The corporation shall keep at its principal executive office, the original or a copy of the articles and Bylaws as amended to date which shall be open to inspection by the members at all reasonable times during office hours.

Section 3. Inspection by Directors. Every director shall have the absolute right at any reasonable time to inspect all books, records, and documents of every kind and the physical properties of the corporation and each of its subsidiary corporations. This inspection by a director may be made in person or by an agent or attorney, and right of inspection includes the right to copy and make extracts of documents.

ARTICLE XIII - CONSTRUCTION AND DEFINITIONS
Unless the context requires otherwise, the general provisions, rules of construction and definitions in the California Nonprofit Corporation Law shall govern the construction of these Bylaws. Without limiting the generality of the above, the masculine gender includes the feminine and neuter, the singular number includes the plural, the plural number includes the singular, and the term “person” includes both the corporation and a natural person.

ARTICLE XIV - AMENDMENTS TO BYLAWS

Except as provided in these Bylaws or in Section 5151, 5220, 5224, 5512, 5613, or 5616 of the California Corporations Code, these Bylaws may be amended or repealed by the Board on a two-thirds plus one vote of the directors voting, a quorum being present, unless the action would materially and adversely affect the rights of members as to voting or transfer. Where required by these Bylaws or by the foregoing sections of the California Corporations Code or where the action would materially and adversely affect the rights of members as to voting or transfer, these Bylaws may be amended or repealed only upon approval by the members.

ARTICLE XV - INITIATIVES

Section 1. Initiatives. For purposes of this article, the “Initiative” is the power of the members to propose amendments to these Bylaws and to policies or procedures of the AS and to adopt or reject them, and to recommend actions to be taken by the AS. Before resorting to the Initiative procedures set forth herein, the proponent or proponents thereof first in good faith must have petitioned the Board or the appropriate standing committee to take the action that is the subject of the proposed initiative and such petition must have been denied or rejected or action not have been taken thereon by the Board or standing committee by the time the Initiative procedures must begin pursuant hereto. To be placed on a ballot of a general or special election, a petition therefor signed by 20 percent of the members who voted in the general election of the AS conducted immediately preceding the submission of such petition must be submitted to the Executive Vice President, who shall verify the signatures thereon as then being members of the AS.

An initiative shall be placed on the ballot of the general election or special election next following submission and verification of the petition therefor or of a special election, if approved by the Board. Petitions when possible shall be on-line petitions.
Verification of the members of the corporation as defined in Article VI, Section 1 who have signed the petition will be overseen and supervised by a representative of the CSUC Student Life and Leadership Office. A random sample of the members who have signed the petition shall be verified. If such sample discloses a percentage of invalid signatures that, when applied to the total number of petition signatures would result in an insufficient number of members' signatures to qualify the petition for the ballot, all of the signatures submitted shall be verified to determine if the requisite number has been obtained for the petition to appear on the ballot.

Prior to circulation to the members of the corporation of a petition for an initiative, the language thereof shall be reviewed and revised as necessary to clearly and concisely state the intent of the initiative by a panel of three comprised of a student representing the proponent or proponents selected by them, a student member of the Board appointed by the AS President, and a person appointed by the University Vice-President of Student Affairs. Once so reviewed, the initiative, then, prior to circulation, shall be determined to be in compliance with applicable CSUC and trustee policy and local, state and federal laws by the Board in consultation with legal counsel of the corporation. The Board shall determine compliance with CSUC and trustee policy and local, state and federal laws of any such petition submitted to it within ten days of the date such petition was submitted. If the Board determines such petition not to be in compliance with applicable CSUC and trustee policy or local, state or federal law, it shall provide a detailed written statement setting forth the manner in which such petition is determined not to be in compliance. If the petition determined not to be in compliance is revised and resubmitted to the Executive Vice President of the corporation, the Board again shall determine compliance with campus and trustee policy and local and state, and federal laws, in consultation with legal counsel of the corporation, within ten days of the date such revised petition is submitted.

Section 2. Referenda. The Board may place a referendum or referenda on the ballot of any general or special election.

ARTICLE XVII - ABRIDGMENTS

No branch of the AS or any other organization subject to its jurisdiction shall adopt any policy or pass any statute or other law which directly or indirectly abridges the freedom of speech, assembly, press religion or basic right of any individual; nor shall any of the same organizations practice or sanction the practices of any discrimination according to sex, age, race, national origin, creed, or physical disability.
