ABOUT THE ART SHOW
The CSU Diversity Art Show is a project that is organized through the Good Neighbor Internship of the Associated Students of CSU-Chico. This art show seeks to create a sustainable dialogue between the members of the Chico community and Chico State specifically in the topic of diversity. Fifteen art works by Chico State art majors are to be displayed in the Museum of Northern California Art Pop-up. These art works investigate diversity in any or all of its aspects: racial diversity, cultural diversity, sexual diversity, religious diversity to name a few. Through the student perspective, the CSU Diversity Art Show’s ultimate goal is to promote art and diversity in the Chico community.

ELIGIBILITY
Open to California State University, Chico students who are art majors or art minors.

GUIDELINES
• The artwork should be an original creation by the artist, from the artist’s own original ideas and concepts of the theme.
• The artwork should investigate issues of diversity in any or all of its facets (e.g. racial diversity, cultural diversity, sexual diversity, etc).
• The artwork submission should be a 2D representation of the theme (e.g. drawing, painting, photograph, etc).
• Artworks may be in color or black and white.
• All artworks should be ready to easily install on gallery walls be it framed or on a canvass (please supply necessary hardware, pushpins not acceptable).
• Artwork submissions must NOT EXCEED 24x36 inches.
• Artworks should inspire and promote the acceptance of diversity in the community and should not inspire hate, crime and/or violence. Submitted artworks that are deemed to be hateful and violent will be taken out of the competition.
• Artworks submitted should be submitted with artist’s name, the medium of art and the title of the piece.
