G. Information Item: Executive Orders 2017-01 and 2017-02 – Pratt reviewed the two Executive Orders with the Board.

H. Director of University Affairs Report – Fleet said she delegated two of the Student Academic Senators to help with two of the Academic Affairs campus job searches. The Student Senate is working on preparing for a shared governance reception, tentatively to be held April 14. Fleet will be collaborating with the University, and Nguyen for this event. Fleet is planning a joint meeting for March 20 between the Student Academic Senate and the ad hoc on Student Success. She said the next Student Academic Senate meeting will be held March 27. Fleet is working on a Pizza with the Provost event to be tentatively held on April 6. Fleet is planning a mandatory spring training for Student Senators. Fleet and others are attending CHESS this weekend.

I. Director of Legislative Affairs Report – Dumas said that two members of LAC recently resigned due to work and school conflicts, he is working on finding new members. Dumas said meetings have been set up with Senator Jim Neilsen and Assemblyman James Gallagher this weekend during CHESS – focus on discussing the tuition increase.

J. University Vice Presidents’ Reports – Hyatt said he had nothing to report at this time.

K. Executive Director’s Report – Buckley said that the housing contract is being worked on between Jamie Clyde and Annabel Grimm. Buckley recognized the AS staff, especially AS Catering staff, for what they did for the President’s Inauguration. He said there were a lot of positive comments. Buckley said they are continuing to look for warehouse space near campus to purchase but nothing is available at this time. Buckley provided the history regarding the former retail operation (mini C-Store) and faculty/staff dining room in the Selvesters’ building. He explained the kitchen area is vacant due to possible asbestos issues. In addition, remodeling of the kitchen would be unlikely due to the building being so close to the creek.
